His Trial comes on the 5th of July next.

Fort William in the Highlands of Scotland, June 16. Last Friday being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Accession to the Throne, our Lieutenant Governor, attended by the Officers of this Garrison, and several other Gentlemen, went to the River Speyn, 6 Miles from hence, where all the Materials being prepared for a Bridge over that rapid and dangerous Water, the first

Stone was laid, and the Healths of their Majesties, the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Royal Family, with many other loyal Toasts, were drank, at the Instant our great Guns were firing on the happy Occasion of the Day. This Bridge is to be of three Arches; the middle Arch 50 Feet Diameter, the other two Arches 40 Feet each; the Hills thro' which the River runs being very high, the Causeway, for the better Access to the Road on each Side, will be 80 Feet from the common Surface of the Water, which is here near 30 Feet deep. The finishing this Work will compleat a safe and easy Communication from this Garrison to those of Fort Augustus and Fort George, and likewise to all the Military Roads, which by his Majesty's Command have been carried on through the Highlands under the Care of General Wade. The Company returned, and supped with the Governor, where the above Healths were repeated, and the Night ended with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Sun, Master Attendant of the said Yard, going through the Water Gates of the Dock, the Water shut them with such Force, that they cut the Boat in two, leaving the Captain very much bruised in one Part of the Boat within the Dock, which soon after sunk with Capt. Sun, and by the great Eddy of the Water he was drawn under a Float of Timber, but by the Assistance of a Boat, which happened to be in the wet Dock to take up a Boy who fell over board, he was taken up alive, tho' in a very weak Condition.

On the 17th ult died of a Dropsy, Mr. William Temple, of Trowbridge, Clothier, of whom we have received the following Eulogy:

In Trade he acquired

* An handsome Fortune, with a good Character, Being equally remarkable for his Sagacity and Industry, But more for the unfashionable Custom of paying every one to their Satisfaction,

Though they did not deserve it.

This Lenity, as it made him the best of Masters, gain'd him the best of Servants.

He reached his grand Climacterick

Without suing any Man at Law, or being sued.

In his Youth

He had a Taste for, and Acquaintance with, some Parts of the Mathematics,

As well as Poetry and Divinity:

And doubtless would have excelled in them all, Had not his Mind been diverted from Study by his necessary Avocations.

Had his Education been as refined, as his Faculties were strong,

Perhaps, at the Head of polite Literature, he had appeared

A Genius, both the Ornament and Wonder of the Age.

In Religion

He was a Bigot to no Party,

Yet a strict Adherent to his own.

He was of the Communion of the Baptists, But loved truly pious Christians of all Communions.

In his Conduct towards Mankind,

He was always ready to assist,

With his Purse, the Neccessitous,

With his friendly Advice the Doubtful,

And with Christian Consolation the Dejected.

With Regard to himself;

He was peaceable in his Manners, severe in his Actions, Cautious in his Actions, steady in his Resolutions, Uniform in his Principles, constant in his Devotion, And having lived esteemed, died lamented.

The Universal Family MEDICINE,
Still more and more fam'd, after upwards of Ten Years Success with the Publick,
Is sold by the Author's Appointment, by Mr. King, at the Sign of the Globe in the Poultry, near the Royal Exchange, London; at Mr. Hildyard's, Bookseller in York; and at Mr. Oakley's, Bookseller in Cardiff, Wales, at 3s. the Bottle Retail.
It is to be taken at any Season of the Year, but especially in the Spring and Fall; is so very agreeable to Young and Old, that Children take it without Trouble, a few Drops being a Dose; and so gentle, that it weakens not the most Aged: For it is a safe and effectual Alterative (in a less Dose) where Purgings is not necessary; an Excellence inherent in this Medicine, which is a singular Property well known to the Learned, to be in some Cathartick Medicines.
It is in particular,

A Certain and infallible Cure for the
SCURVY, tho' of the longest Standing, and attended with the most aggravated Circumstances (a Distemper so common to English People, that not one in a thousand is wholly exempt from it, and great Numbers are sorely afflicted with it) being a cordial Elixir, peculiarly adapted to that Disease in all its Forms of appearing, from the slightest itching Humour in the Blood, to its utmost or last Efforts on human Nature.
For it is a true Specifick Cordial, that perfectly cures that Distemper by gentle Evacuation, by Stool and Urine, the only sure and effectual Way perfectly to cure the Scurvy, &c. and prevent Relapses (notwithstanding what may be dreamt to the contrary) the Truth of which is witnessed to daily, by the many Thousands that have taken this Medicine. It so powerfully rectifies the Blood and Juices, that scrophulous Cases are also speedily cured by it; and all Spots, Blisters, Pimples, &c. on the Skin, are quickly and entirely taken off, the Patients made lively and brisk, many chronick Diseases prevented, and a due State of Health secured.
It removes all Pain from the Stomach, helps Digestion, opens Obstructions, and is peculiarly serviceable to Maids inclined to, or troubled with the Green Sickness. 'Tis the best Medicine in the World to destroy Worms in Children or grown People, and prevent their Return; for it scours away all those rooky, viscid Humours which breed them in their Bowels, and is so well adapted to all Constitutions, that it is deservedly esteemed both in City and Country, the most general Family Medicine that ever was known to preserve Health, and hinder no Business or Recreation.
Good Allowance is given Wholesale by Mr. King for ready Money to Country Shopkeepers, &c. to sell again. This Medicine will keep many Years, and is sold no where else in London: Therefore beware of pyrating Counterfeiters, who endeavour to shroud under the valid Reputation this Superlative Medicament has every where obtained by its known Virtues for the Purposes above-mentioned, or any envious Suggestions about Names, with an Intent to hinder unwary People the Benefit of this experienced Medicine, too well known to lose Reputation thereby; but Envy and Interest never want Pretences.
The Directions given with it are large and full.
